DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,808,160 to Timmons et al.

Fig. 2 of Timmons teaches an apparatus comprising a first cannula having a distal end adapted to be received at a first depth into a patient's nostril, and a second cannula having a distal end fully capable of being adapted to be received at a second depth into the nostril (cannulae 22); wherein the first and second cannulae are disposed adjacent each other, and a predefined length of said first cannula being disposed substantially separate and independent from a predefined length of said adjacently disposed second cannula, such that upon insertion into the patient's nostril, the predefined lengths of each cannula being allowed to substantially separately and independently conform to internal contours of the patient's nostril and air passage, and said predefined lengths of each cannula being substantially separately and independently disposable in contact with the internal of the patient's nostril and air passage; wherein the second depth is capable of being equal to the first depth; wherein each cannula comprises a port (the proximal end of the cannula); and wherein the distal end has an aperture.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Timmons.

Timmons teaches all the limitations of the claim except for the first depth and second depth ranging up to 3 cm. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the first and second depth ranging up to 3 cm since the cannula is inserted into a person's nostril, which has a variable opening that could range up to 3 cm.

5. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Timmons in view of US 4,446,869 to Knodle.

6. Timmons is silent with regards to a moisture trap connected to the first or second cannula. Knodle teaches that it is known for a cannula to have a moisture trap (col. 1, lines 7-45). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention to add a moisture trap to the device of Timmons, as disclosed by Knodle, since it is well known in the art to provide a moisture trap in a nasal cannula.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 11-14 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
